MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

FRIDAY, JULY 24, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—An unusually large crowd was out to the park concert last evening and the entertainment was one of the best of the many fine programs already rendered.

—The Marietta nine plays at Cambridge today and tomorrow. Cambridge undoubtedly has one of the strongest teams in southeastern Ohio and if the Mariettas break even on the two games they will not have cause to complain.

—Charles Mooney, of Antioch, Monroe county, passed through the city Thursday night in custody of Charles Kaiser and Guy Lynch, who were taking him to Athens to be treated for insanity at the State Hospital.

—The Central District and Printing Telegraph Company have issued invitations to attend the opening of the long distance line at Sistersville Friday. The opening will be at the parlors of the Hotel Wells, from 3 to 5 p. m., ladies from 7 to 9 p. m.

—Royal Blue Flyer No. 4 passed through this city last evening to go over the C. & M. to Cambridge, and thence east. We wish the trains like the R. B. F. might have the good taste to come our way always, instead of going through Parkersburg.

—Miss Blanche Scott returned home to Parkersburg Thursday, after a pleasant visit with friends in this city.

—Frank Devol, charged with shooting with intent to kill, will have a preliminary hearing next Monday.

—The following Officers of Gutterberg Lodge I. O. O. F. were installed Thursday evening by D. D. Jacob Rech: Daniel Schlicher, N. G.; David Schlicher, V. G.; W. S. Allender, R. S. N. G.; Fred Baker, L. S. N. G.; Henry Bachner, O. G.; Nic. Reider, J. G.; Jacob Suder, Warden; Henry Lorenz, R. S. S.; Jacob Berg, L. S. S.; Charles Suder, R. S. V. G.; Chas. Parker, L. S. V. G.; John Faber, P. G.; Louis Suder, Jr., Chaplain.

—The Junior Endeavor Society will give a social and entertainment this evening at the Harmar Congregational church. Admission 10 cents. All are invited.

—Mr. Samuel Chapman and Miss Serena Bauman, of this city, went to Parkersburg Wednesday and procured a marriage license. They were married at Williamstown by the M. E. minister of that place. The news will surprise their many friends.

—The marriage of Mr. T. G. Sellow, of Cincinnati, and Miss Mamie Haight, of this city, is announced to take place on Wednesday evening of next week.

—In Probate Court Thursday Louis Goebel and Elizabeth Schneider gave bond in the sum of $61,000, as Trustee of a fund under the will of John Schneider, deceased.

—The Columbian Gun Club will hold a shoot today at their grounds up the Ohio. A number of the members will attend the tournament at St. Marys next week.

—Untrimmed hats and flowers at 1/2 price, all this week at the Bee Hive.

—District Lecturer J. C. Preston was at Bishopville Thursday evening visiting the Masonic lodge of that place in his official capacity.

—At her home on Pike street Wednesday night Miss Mamie Kauf died at the age of 22 years after an illness of but one week's duration. She was the daughter of Daniel Kauf, was well known and popular among her associates.

—Recorder John W. Athey was at Belpre Thursday on business.

—Adam Worster, of Elba, is visiting friends in the city.

—Miss Winnie Knowles left Thursday to visit friends at Parkersburg.

—Mr. Archimedes Calvert called in Wednesday, and asked that we make a correction of our statement to the effect that he was armed with a pistol and knives. He did have these, as he stated, but as to the knives—there should have been some qualification. They were simply pocket knives, such as most men carry, except that one of them outlived its usefulness many years ago, and could scarcely be dignified with the name of knife.—Leader.

And if you would be just to Mr. Calvert you might have said that he had permission to carry a gun in running the gauntlet of Mile Run antagonists, which on reaching town was wrapped up in a yard or more of gunny bag and laid in the bottom of his wagon while he peddled out his stuff. Calvert's vindication was complete. While he is somewhat erratic, and demonstrative possibly contentious for his rights, he is a man of shrewdness, was a soldier and is apparently as sane as the average newspaper man.—Register.

The Register is a goose. From long acquaintance with Mr. Calvert, the editor of the Leader knows his temperament and character fairly well, and instead of any desire to do him injustice, was pleased to take his side of the controversy on the question of his sanity. That any man could be given by any one "permission to carry a gun" is certainly ridiculous.

—Just think of it! A dollar Hat for 50 cents and 50 cent flowers for 25 cents this week at the Bee Hive.

—The next Epworth League social will be held at the residence of Mrs. Milton Ellis, Bartlett, Ohio, Saturday evening, Aug. 1st. Everybody cordially invited.

—Willie Johnson, Clem Curtis and Robbie Mason returned from Boston Wednesday night, bringing with them Acme Girl and Miss Codmus, two of William Roeser's string of horses. Carrie V. and Lena B. have been sold to Boston parties.

—Mrs. William Stephan and two children left Thursday to visit relatives at Athens.

—Miss Nettie Bahlman, of Lincoln, Neb., is visiting her parents on the West Side, after an absence of three years.

—Misses Bertha and Bessie Danker left Thursday for Pittsburg, to visit friends.

—Still the Bargain Sale goes on all this week at the Bee Hive.

—A special from Zanesville says: Rosanna, the ten-year-old daughter of Mrs. James W. Foutch, died under peculiar circumstances. She was a bright girl, read everything she could find and after the St. Louis hurricane was the victim of nervous prostration. She read everything about that calamity. During the thunderstorms that prevailed here Wednesday she said there was a hurricane coming and soon suffered another prostration of nervousness from the effects of which she died.

—The Executive Committee of the survivors' organization of the 77th O. V. V. I. will meet at the Court House next Wednesday, July 29th, at 1 p. m., to arrange for the 24th annual reunion to be held in this city during the Washington County Fair. The committee is composed of the following survivors: J. C. Goldsmith, R. B. Griggs and John W. Athey, Marietta; John W. Brabham, Lowell; W. H. Bingham, Torch, A. H. Henry, Stockport, Ohio. G. J. Lund, Vice Pres., and L. J. Cutter, Sec'y are members ex-officio.

—Cambridge will be honored with the annual session of the grand lodge of Colored Odd Fellows this year. The meeting will be held in August. The Cambridge lodge is making extensive preparations for the meeting and are receiving much encouragement from Cambridge I. O. O. F. and citizens generally.—[Cambridge Jeffersonian.]

—Special Sale of Fancy Ribbons all this week at the Bee Hive.

—A new ferry was inaugurated Thursday at Stowe's Landing, just above Devol's Dam. The ferry is free, operated by the county, and is in charge of Charles Martens. The outfit is the same as that which has been in use at "Ridgeway's". It is a cable ferry and hustles back and forth at good speed. The first passenger taken across was our fellow townsman, attorney L. W. Ellenwood; and it is needless to remark to those who know Mr. Ellenwood's physical making, that the boat was rigorously tested on its very first trip.

Why It Failed.

Speaking of the proposed Ohio Valley Base Ball League, which failed, the Sistersville Oil Review says:

It also developed that Sig Marcus had plans laid to organize a six club league, to be composed of the lower river towns, leaving Sistersville and Marietta out. The whole business is spite work on the part of Marcus because the Marietta team was to be a member of the league, as the Review readers all know, that a bitter base ball animosity exists between the two towns, all because of a little squabble at a game in Marietta last spring, since which time the Parkersburg team has refused to play Marietta under any circumstances or conditions, although Marietta has been willing to meet them at any time. Mr. Rodgers returned home this morning very much put out over the turn affairs have taken, as he anticipated the organization of the league and had expected the co-operation of the Parkersburg club as they sent word that they would have a representative there, and also told Manager Reeser the same when he was in Parkersburg last Saturday. Another effort will be made to go on with the league, which will leave Parkersburg out in the cold, and Mr. Marcus can take his little band to the seashore, as they may be good swimmers, but they can't play ball. It is not likely that the home team will ever consent to play them again, after the way in which he has acted in trying to freeze Sistersville out of the league. It looks very much as though he was afraid our team would be too swift for his band of misfits.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Calouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We want keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at W. H. Styler's Drug Store.

RESCUED.

On Lake Erie's Shores--The Captain's Wife Tells the Story--It Will Interest Many.

From The Buffalo Evening News.

If you were to call at 27 Front avenue you would find a pleasant elderly lady, Mrs. Captain Hensley by name, whose husband has sailed the lakes for many a year, and when in port makes his home in Buffalo, N. Y. Her kindly smile and joyous manner are to no small extent due to the escape she has had. Her own words can better describe her rescue and one can easily understand her present happy condition when they realize what she has gone through. She says: "About five months ago I had an attack of sickness which lasted for a week and since that time I have been subject at intervals to similar attacks, some of which were longer in duration. It is hard for me to describe how I suffered. The pain would commence in my head, after which it would seem to pass down my body and settle in my back, my sides ached, my back ached, and I had a feeling of great distress in my bowels. The increased pain which seemed to come from lying down, would be almost unbearable, my face and stomach would blot up and I could hardly stand on my feet, dizziness made it almost impossible; this feeling was always with me even after the violence of the attack passed over. The last attack I had was the worst, and so bad I would not have been able to tell this story but for Doan's Kidney Pills. As soon as I commenced their use I found immediate relief. The pain in my back and sides left me and the dizziness went with it; the bloating in my face and body disappeared and all distress in my bowels was gone. I have great faith in Doan's Kidney Pills; in a short time they did a great deal more for me than all the plasters and medicines which I had resorted to in seeking relief and cure. I hope always to be able to procure them."
